

Join the Green Army!

Is this for you?

Are you aged between 17 and 24, an Australian citizen or permanent resident and would like to be a part of a team that will make a REAL difference to the environment in your local community?

Would you like to be paid an allowance while gaining skills, training and experience that can help you enter the workforce, improve your career opportunities or further your education and training?

Then the GREEN ARMY is for you.

The Green Army is an Australian Government initiative open to young people including Indigenous Australians, school leavers, gap year students, graduates and job seekers who are looking to develop skills, undertake training and gain experience in the delivery of conservation projects. Through this, participants will enhance opportunities for careers and further training in conservation.

Biodiversity and Habitat Protection

This project aims to improve the condition, extent and connectivity of ecological communities within the Darwin Harbour catchment. Supporting Landcare groups across the region.

The project will:

- Extend the work of community groups and land managers in the region
- Help to protect and enhance wetlands and sensitive coastal environments

To Apply

Complete the application form on www.conservationvolunteers.com.au/green-army

More Information

Visit: www.environment.gov.au/green-army

Phone: 08 8981 3206

Connecting people
with our environment